

ON SATURDAY NIGHTS the Real Estate columns of the "News are closely studied by those interested in buying or selling Real Estate.

LAST EDITION.

No Hope For Pope's Recovery

So Declares Dr. Lapponi After the Consultation of Physicians—End May Come Tonight—Day Began Well, Patient Saying: "I Ought to Grow Fat, as I Have Never Had in My Life as Much as I Get Now."

Rome, July 9, 9:30 p. m.—After the consultation of the physicians, Dr. Lapponi said:

"I fear there is no hope, no hope whatever, and yet the end may not come tonight."

CONSULTATION HELD.

Rome, July 9, 7:30 p. m.—The following bulletin has been issued:

"The general condition of the illustrious patient having become depressed, a consultation was held at 4 o'clock with the participation of Prof. Rossi. From objective examination it appears that the fluid is again rapidly gathering in the pleura. The sounds of the heart are weak, without any symptoms of valvular lesion. The pulse is easily compressible, that is to say, it has 90 pulsations instead of 85, which is normal. The breathing is superficial and at long intervals. The kidneys are not performing their functions. The state of his holiness is considered grave."

SYMPATHETIC MESSAGES.

"Besides the inquiries from all the reigning sovereigns, there were received at the Vatican today sympathetic messages from the Count of Flanders, the Duke and Duchess Paul of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, the Infanta Isabella, Count Caserta, (pretender to the throne of Spain), the Duke of Parma, the Duke of Calabria, the Duke of Athens, the Duke of Braganza, the Duke of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha."

"LAPPONI."

Dr. Lapponi remained at the Vatican after the consultation of the physicians was ended, but he came from the sick chamber long enough to say a few words. The doctor looked haggard and much depressed. The hopeful appearance which he had shown early in the day had entirely disappeared. He said:

"I fear there is no hope, no hope whatever, and yet the end may not come tonight. Although the patient's condition is very grave, the disease seems to be developing through slow but certain processes."

MAZZONI RETURNED TO VATICAN.

Doctor Rossi and Dr. Mazzoni left the Vatican after the consultation, but at 7 o'clock Dr. Mazzoni returned. It is now expected that another official bulletin will be issued about 9 o'clock. One of the most remarkable features in the turn which affairs have taken is that the pope continues dressed and partially sitting up. His mind is perfectly clear and apparently the only cause for alarm is that the doctors have detected a renewal of the dangerous internal complications.

Rome, July 9, 4:15 p. m.—By special favor, the correspondent of the Associated Press here was allowed this morning to visit the papal apartment, where he had an interview on the situation with a personage who is better informed than any one else, but who, from motives easily understood, does not wish his name mentioned. He said:

"The first possible sign of amelioration in the pope's condition since he was taken ill was seen this morning. The patient rested well enough during a great part of the night. It was not the sleep of prostration or collapse, but peaceful and natural, so much that the benefit is quite visible this morning. His temperature is 96, which is quite normal for the pontiff, considering his age and present condition. What is important is that his temperature never rose above normal and never even approached a feverish state. He now has a slight cough and his kidneys are still deranged, but the secretion of urine, although very scarce, is somewhat augmented, which proves that his heart is stronger and his condition better, as demonstrated by the complete disappearance of cyanosis, so that his hands have again taken their natural, almost diaphanous aspect."

"Dr. Lapponi this morning informed the prelates who were waiting in the ante-room that he had examined the matter which the pope had expectorated through coughing, and he said he was able to confirm his diagnosis, having found traces of blood, clearly demonstrating the existence of pneumonia."

DR. LAPPONI HOPEFUL.

"Everyone noticed that while in the past Dr. Lapponi never participated in the rejoicing and enthusiasm which he announced or imagined amelioration in the pope's condition, remaining always extremely reserved and anxious looking, this morning, for the first time, Dr. Lapponi's face was tranquil and even hopeful looking, though it was said that he was very far from believing in a real, definite and lasting amelioration which would lead to the pontiff's recovery."

"Pope Leo himself noticed at once on waking this morning that he was much refreshed and stronger and he said with intangible energy that he wanted to resume his ordinary life. He insisted on dressing himself and walked to his arm chair, where he sat down and went through his complete toilet arrangements. It was not until his beard had been shaved that he would return to bed."

"As the pope is much touched by the evidences of sympathy coming to him from all parts of the world, Dr. Lapponi showed him some of the telegrams which had reached him as the pope's physician, including the following message from the Rev. Father Cleary, which said in part:

"Before he dies I wish to see the world at peace. God bless him. Do not give him up. The world needs him."

POPE AND AMERICANS.

"The pontiff was much satisfied. He said: 'The Americans have always shown me more affection than any other people. I love them.'"

"When this incident became known to the prelates in the ante-chamber, one of the exclaimed:

"If the pope lives here is an American priest who will not be forgotten. He will be made a bishop, at least, in the Philippines."

"The pontiff having expressed a desire to see the newspapers and Dr. Lapponi wishing to preserve him from reading any of the alarming news which has appeared even in the clerical the last seven days. The doctors, previous to the alarming attack of this afternoon, said there was not the slightest diminution in the acuteness of the pontiff's mental faculties, as shown this morning in a remarkable manner, when the pope insisted on going over some of the large questions of church policy laid before him by Cardinal Rampolla, the papal secretary of state.

He went about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, although no worse, the pope was not reported to be any better and then came the news of the pontiff's sudden collapse and of the sending for a consulting physician.

Here the nation's guest was met by the king and the Prince of Wales, the Duke of Connaught, Premier Balfour, and the ministers, members of the French embassy and a crowd of military and other officials.

As M. Loubet's carriage drew up, King Edward advanced with the prince and hand, taking the president familiarly by the arm, led him through the waiting room to the royal car. For a few minutes they talked with the president, who was talking with much animation. King Edward grasped President Loubet's right hand and shook it with extreme cordiality, while with the left hand he patted the president on the shoulder. Official as well as amateur artists could be seen in all directions securing snapshots of the distinguished guests. After renewed wishes of good wishes, the president, in the royal car and stood chatting with him until the train pulled out amid cheers and shouts of 'Vive Loubet, vive Loubet' with the strains of the 'Marseillaise'.

President Loubet stood at a window of the car waving his handkerchief in his right hand until the train disappeared from view.

Upon his arrival at Dover President Loubet embarked upon the French cruiser Guichen, which departed immediately, accompanied by a torpedo boat and followed by farewell salutes from the fleet and castle. Before his departure from Dover, King Edward thanked him for his hearty reception accorded him as the representative of France, the friend of England.

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

"At the moment of leaving British soil, I am anxious to address to your majesty an expression of my lively gratitude for the hearty reception your majesty and her majesty, the queen, the royal family and the British nation extended to me as the representative of France, the friend of England."

ARRIVES AT CALAIS.

Calais, France, July 9.—President Loubet met with a great reception here today on his return to French soil from his tour of the pope's bedside.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORS GATHER IN DENVER.

Denver, July 9.—At the annual business meeting of the United States of Christian Endeavor, which was held at the Brown Palace hotel in this city today, nearly 1,000 persons, all of whom were elected as follows:

President—Rev. Francis E. Clark, D.D.

Treasurer—William Shaw, Clerk—George H. Gray, Secretary—Auditor—Fred H. Kildee.

The retiring trustees were also elected and presidents were named for the various states, territorial and provincial societies.

The trustees postponed their annual meeting until tomorrow afternoon.

Order of business: Report of Christian Endeavor societies from all parts of the United States and Canada, with a few from abroad, arriving during the day and many more are on the way. The weather was perfect and more than 10,000 people attended the opening mass meeting of the twenty-fifth annual Christian Endeavor convention this afternoon in the large tent erected near City Park for this occasion. A rousing song service, led by Rev. F. H. Jacobs, of New York, preceded the opening exercises, which were called to order at 2 o'clock by Francis E. Clark, father of the Christian Endeavor movement.

After the opening exercises, the 20 members, organized in Williston church, at Portland, Me., in 1881, to 64,000 societies, with a membership of nearly 6,000,000 persons, after the opening exercises led by Rev. Dr. E. B. Tyler, of Denver, a welcoming song was sung by a chorus of 600 voices, conducted by Prof. W. J. Williams.

Welcoming addresses followed. Gov. James P. Peabody speaking for the state; Rev. Dr. Robert E. Coyle, for Colorado; and Rev. Dr. William E. Sweet for the committee of 182. Heartily greetings was also extended to the visitors by Dr. George F. Libbey, Williston, Minn.

Ten minute responses were delivered by delegates from the north, east, south and west and from foreign countries.

GERMAN MEAT LAW.

Having More Serious Consequences Than Anticipated.

Berlin, July 9.—The German meat law, which went into effect in April, is having more serious consequences commercially than anticipated. As the regulations require the inspection of meats and lard to take place in bonded warehouses before export and the inspection fees are heavy, the German merchants complained they are at a great disadvantage in transit trade. They had hitherto supplied Austria and Switzerland with American meats and lard, but since the new law has been enacted, the Austrian and Swiss trade and Germany is losing the transit profits.

The German shippers therefore are calling loudly for the abolition of the inspection requirements in the case of export goods.

POWDER WORKS EXPLOSION.

One at Pinole, Cal., Kills Mary Woods and Injures Four Others.

Pinole, Cal., July 8.—An explosion in the California powder works this morning killed Miss Mary Woods, a packer, and injured four other employees. They were all badly burned and injured. Their names are: Joe Kincaid, Clyde Berryman, Leo de Mello, Miss Sadie Maguire.

The explosion occurred in the cart-drying house, which is totally destroyed at a loss of $5,000. The explosion is supposed to have been due to the fact that a nail in an empty shell ignited the primer and caused two kegs of black sporting powder to explode.

William Jarden was arrested by the police last night for gambling. He was found guilty by Judge Hall this morning and fined $50, which he paid.

A laboring man whose name could not be learned, was brought to Ogden this morning, with his legs badly crushed, he having been injured with a steam plow while working on the Lucin cut-off. He is being cared for at the Ogden general hospital.

GAMBLER FINED.

William Jarden was arrested by the police last night for gambling. He was found guilty by Judge Hall this morning and fined $50, which he paid.

A big party of gypsies is camped in the vicinity of East Temple and Twelfth South streets. As they are decidedly a wild looking aggregation, residents in that vicinity are not looking upon the invasion with a great amount of pleasure. Two of the old ladies in the party are veritable underdresses for the broken scene in Macbeth. Some of the party visited police headquarters today in search of free peddling permits. When the privilege was declined they made a few remarks in their own vernacular, that betokened that they were displeased.

IDAHO POSTMASTERS. (Special to the "News.") Washington, D. C., July 9.—Idaho postmasters appointed: Ahtol, Kootenai county, Henry E. Dyer, vice Jas. J. Dumas, removed; Bruneau, Owyhee

Building Strike A "Silly Thing"

So Declares Boss Bricklayer Heron, in Charge of Work On the Holmes Flat—Not in Sympathy With the Hodcarriers—Is Giving Employment to Union and Non-Union Men Alike—"Will You Stay?" the Question.

PREST. LOUBET LEAVES ENGLAND FOR FRANCE.

London, July 9.—Despite the earliness of his departure, the route from St. James palace to the railroad station was alive with people and British "Hurrahs" and French "Vive Loubet" resounded throughout the streets when President Loubet had entered the station.

Here the nation's guest was met by the king and the Prince of Wales, the Duke of Connaught, Premier Balfour, and the ministers, members of the French embassy and a crowd of military and other officials.

As M. Loubet's carriage drew up, King Edward advanced with the prince and hand, taking the president familiarly by the arm, led him through the waiting room to the royal car. For a few minutes they talked with the president, who was talking with much animation. King Edward grasped President Loubet's right hand and shook it with extreme cordiality, while with the left hand he patted the president on the shoulder. Official as well as amateur artists could be seen in all directions securing snapshots of the distinguished guests. After renewed wishes of good wishes, the president, in the royal car and stood chatting with him until the train pulled out amid cheers and shouts of 'Vive Loubet, vive Loubet' with the strains of the 'Marseillaise'.

President Loubet stood at a window of the car waving his handkerchief in his right hand until the train disappeared from view.

Upon his arrival at Dover President Loubet embarked upon the French cruiser Guichen, which departed immediately, accompanied by a torpedo boat and followed by farewell salutes from the fleet and castle. Before his departure from Dover, King Edward thanked him for his hearty reception accorded him as the representative of France, the friend of England.

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

"At the moment of leaving British soil, I am anxious to address to your majesty an expression of my lively gratitude for the hearty reception your majesty and her majesty, the queen, the royal family and the British nation extended to me as the representative of France, the friend of England."

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

"At the moment of leaving British soil, I am anxious to address to your majesty an expression of my lively gratitude for the hearty reception your majesty and her majesty, the queen, the royal family and the British nation extended to me as the representative of France, the friend of England."

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

Building Strike A "Silly Thing"

So Declares Boss Bricklayer Heron, in Charge of Work On the Holmes Flat—Not in Sympathy With the Hodcarriers—Is Giving Employment to Union and Non-Union Men Alike—"Will You Stay?" the Question.

PREST. LOUBET LEAVES ENGLAND FOR FRANCE.

London, July 9.—Despite the earliness of his departure, the route from St. James palace to the railroad station was alive with people and British "Hurrahs" and French "Vive Loubet" resounded throughout the streets when President Loubet had entered the station.

Here the nation's guest was met by the king and the Prince of Wales, the Duke of Connaught, Premier Balfour, and the ministers, members of the French embassy and a crowd of military and other officials.

As M. Loubet's carriage drew up, King Edward advanced with the prince and hand, taking the president familiarly by the arm, led him through the waiting room to the royal car. For a few minutes they talked with the president, who was talking with much animation. King Edward grasped President Loubet's right hand and shook it with extreme cordiality, while with the left hand he patted the president on the shoulder. Official as well as amateur artists could be seen in all directions securing snapshots of the distinguished guests. After renewed wishes of good wishes, the president, in the royal car and stood chatting with him until the train pulled out amid cheers and shouts of 'Vive Loubet, vive Loubet' with the strains of the 'Marseillaise'.

President Loubet stood at a window of the car waving his handkerchief in his right hand until the train disappeared from view.

Upon his arrival at Dover President Loubet embarked upon the French cruiser Guichen, which departed immediately, accompanied by a torpedo boat and followed by farewell salutes from the fleet and castle. Before his departure from Dover, King Edward thanked him for his hearty reception accorded him as the representative of France, the friend of England.

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

"At the moment of leaving British soil, I am anxious to address to your majesty an expression of my lively gratitude for the hearty reception your majesty and her majesty, the queen, the royal family and the British nation extended to me as the representative of France, the friend of England."

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

The text of M. Loubet's telegram to the king is as follows:

Hard Dose For Young Wanless

Ambitious Attorney Defends Himself From the Charge of Spiriting a Witness Away and Listens to the Declaration That He is Guilty and Must Pay the Penalty—Will Be Sentenced on Saturday.

FINAL DAY OF THE HENLEY REGATTA.

Henley, England, July 9.—Delightful weather prevailed during this, the final day of the Henley regatta. There was not sufficient wind to affect the choice of stations. A large crowd was present to witness the finals of all the events, which resulted as follows:

Grand challenge cup—Leander, beat third Trinity, Cambridge last year's winners, by six feet, after an exciting race of twenty minutes, 5 seconds.

Ladies' challenge plate—Magdalen college, Oxford, beat Eaton by a length. Time—1 minutes, 45 seconds.

Handicap challenge cup—Trinity college, Dublin, beat Eaton by a length. Time—1 minutes, 27 seconds.

The silver goblet and nickel challenge cup—Victoria Rowing club, Berlin, beat Kingsgate Rowing club, by 12 lengths. Time—8 minutes, 45 seconds.

Special interest was taken in the final of the grand challenge cup because of third Trinity's misfortune in losing the services of P. D. Goldie, who was indisposed and who had a substitute an untrained man. But for this Trinity would have undoubtedly retained its trophy. As it was, the race was a great one. Leander from the start tried cutting down tactics, but third Trinity held its own. Working on the inside, a roar of cheering, the two boats swung the Grosvenor club enclosure rowing level, but a little later Leander struggled for the lead.

The ladies' challenge race was another stirring contest. Magdalen college led by a length when a furling from home. Trinity spurred at this point and the boats were almost even. Eaton was unable, however, to sustain the effort and was defeated by a length.

Baptist Young People's Union. Atlanta, Ga., July 9.—With an attendance estimated at 5,000 delegates representing almost every section of the United States and Canada, the thirtieth annual convention of the Baptist Young People's Union was called to order today for a four days' session by President John C. Chapman, of Chicago. The opening session was presided by a praise service, which was led by a grand chorus of 600 voices. The delegates of the convention were welcomed by Gov. J. M. Terrell in behalf of the state, Mayor E. H. Howell, in behalf of Atlanta, and former Gov. W. J. Northen, in behalf of Georgia. B. Y. P. U. Emory W. Hunt, president of the denomination, presided. The convention was held in the city of Atlanta, Ga., at the Georgia Hotel, which was the headquarters of the delegates.

The preliminary hearing of the four young men who fought Officer Leaker at Liberty park on Sunday school day, was opened before Judge Diehl this morning. Wilson, the one who was shot, was, of course, unable to appear at court. Assistant County Attorney Smith represented the state, while the defendants were looked after by Attorney C. S. Kinney, Soren K. Christensen and R. W. Dale. The attorneys for the defense requested that Frank Davi, one of the boys, be given a change of venue, assuming that Judge Diehl held a prejudice against him. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow. The defense then moved that the boys be granted a separate trial, which was refused. The judge said he would never try a man who had asked for a change of venue, and the petition was promptly granted. Davi, therefore, will be heard before Justice Clark tomorrow.